

Secretary, National Campaign for People's Right to Information

Delhi Fellowship: Ashok Kumar

IFA has provided Fellowship for the NCPRI secretary for around 20 years. Having evolved during the campaign for the RTI act NCPRI monitors progress, promotes awareness and opposing efforts to dilute it. It is also a common source platform for national movements for food security, pensions, social security and MNREGA including NAPM, MKSS, Satark Nagarik Sangthan and others.

Weekly News Digests:

One of Ashok's main tasks is to prepare a weekly news digest of RTI related events, news items and reporting from newspapers, social media and other sources. These are made widely available. Each weekly newsletter is typically a digest of 40 to 50 such items.

Meetings, Conferences and Lectures

NCPRI hosts frequent sessions of national interest that the secretary helps arrange such as the recent lecture by the Ex Supreme Court Justice Madan Lakur about the various challenges facing people's Right to Information.

*<<< Hunger Watch
Ashok joined a survey of 110 families to gauge the prevalence of hunger
after the pandemic.*

RTI Promotion >>> Ashok explaining RTI to residents of a Delhi basti

Ashok is an active member of the Indian Community Activists Network and participated in its 15th annual session in Varanasi last December. He is part of the Unorganized Sector subgroup of ICAN.

--IFA Liaison: Prithvi Sharma